Event: VP meets VG's (VP trifft VG's)

Vice President Bob Carlew addressed Vice District Governors and shared International President Jitsuhiro Yamada's vision and his key messages. 'Dignity, Harmony and Humanity' he reminded the Lion's international theme and asked participants to think and act accordingly until the international theme is announced.

He made a special emphasis on the teamwork necessary to reach success. 'DG Team is the wheel connecting GLT and GMT' he concluded, and asked for a strong working network to make sure projects are successfully concluded.

During his address, Mr. Carlew elaborated on making the centennial year 'the largest ever' and his own vision of achieving this. 'We want new people who will make a difference' he said. 'We want to make Lions the strongest service organization there has ever been'.

He encouraged Vice District Governors to make the centennial year more memorable by achieving key results and accomplishments. The key service or project you finish in centennial year will never be forgotten he reminded the participants.

Mr. Carlew pointed out following four fundamentals that define the core role of Vice District Governors:

- Represent
- Administer
- Participate
- Support

In carrying out your fundamental roles following aspects should always be covered, Mr. Carlew added, and spend enough time to elaborate each aspect of the following with his experience and wisdom:

1. Service
2. Membership
3. Club Presidents
4. LCIF support
5. Cultural Exchange
6. Centennial Celebration

Taking over from Mr. Carlew's emphasis on education, Ms. Cynthia Bianchi shared the details of upcoming VDG/DGE Training Program. Taking place between June 22-24 2016 in Fukuoka, Japan, 2016 DGE Seminar will prove to be an exciting and successful one she concluded.

She emphasized on the importance of Feedback culture and shared organizational details of reaching anybody anytime.

After Q&A session, Vice President Bob Carlew concluded with his final message: 'Strength of the year coming depends on your strength' he said. Therefore, keep healthy. 'And the quality of the upcoming year is defined by your personal involvement and by the time you invest' he concluded.
